

Register today for NCFA's 2007 National Adoption Conference!

Dear Adoption Advocate,

There's still time to register for NCFA's 2007 National Adoption Conference, which will be held Wednesday-Friday, July 25-27 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Washington, D.C.

Every year, NCFA hosts its national conference in Washington, assembling adoption agency professionals from around the country to discuss current crucial issues facing adoption. NCFA's National Adoption Conference seeks to advance pro-adoption policies with informative briefings, group panels, and breakout sessions featuring adoption policy and opinion leaders.

This year's speakers include Representative Earl Pomeroy of North Dakota, member of the Congressional Coalition on Adoption; Dr. Vu Duc Long, director of the Department of Inter-Country Adoptions in Vietnam; Dr. Gregory Keck, prominent author and founder/director of the Attachment and Bonding Center of Ohio; Dr. Patrick Mason, founder and director of the International Adoption Center of Virginia; and Senator Mary Landrieu, who is hosting a VIP reception off-site. Other conference speakers include representatives from the U.S. Department of State, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, and the Council on Accreditation.

For more information about the conference, call NCFA at 1-866-21-ADOPT or email ncfa@adoptioncouncil.org.
