

Financing Your Adoption

Have you decided that you want to adopt, but have no idea where you will get the funding to complete the process?

If so, you're not alone.

While adopting a child can be expensive, this financing plan could make it more affordable.

NCFA believes that all loving families should be able to open their arms to children in need, and we are happy to provide assistance and information on getting past the financial hurdles that may stand in your way of adopting.

National Council For Adoption and Bank of America have a program that may provide the assistance your growing family may need. NCFA's Adoption Line of Credit is a reliable, renewable source of funding that offers:

- Unsecured lines of credit up to $25,000*
- Initial repayment terms ranging from 24 to 84 months, depending upon amount borrowed
- Predictable, affordable monthly payments
- No annual fees
- No collateral needed
